ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Wrigley was on a leash, but the leash apparently was not hooked and he took off after a rabbit. The owners followed him, but Wrigley continued his chase. He is never taken off before and may be disoriented as they recently moved into a new home. He is friendly to people, and most likely very approachable, however, approach with caution.

We are asking that all veterinarians / shelters keep watch. Please make sure that a "new pet" is not Wrigley as the owners feel someone will want to keep him. He is current on all vacs!
